
Homecoming Parade will start at the Elementary and end at the High School. It will cross 63 and go north to the Hospital cut over to go by the Care Center down West Street back east to go past the library over to south Madison and then across the square exiting on Franklin.