

May is Historic Preservation Month

Whereas, historic preservation is an effective tool for managing growth and sustainable development, revitalizing neighborhoods, fostering local pride and maintaining community character while enhancing livability; and

Whereas, historic preservation is relevant for communities across the nation, both urban and rural, and for Americans of all ages, all walks of life and all ethnic backgrounds; and

Whereas, it is important to celebrate the role of history in our lives and the contributions made by dedicated individuals in helping to preserve the tangible aspects of the heritage that has shaped us as a people; and

Now, therefore I, Daniel Wiegand, Mayor, do hereby proclaim May 2021 as National Preservation Month, and call upon the people of Bloomfield to join their fellow citizens across the United States in recognizing and participating in this special observance.
