Acknowledged Requirements

I acknowledge and understand that application to become a firefighter with the Bloomfield Volunteer Fire & Rescue Department requires the following commitment:

1. Refer to volunteer policy.

Selected applicants will be subject to a 12-month probationary period with review after six (6) months. The following must be completed or accomplished during the 12-month probationary period:

- Attend monthly meetings on the First and third Tuesday of every month from 7:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m.
- 2. Attend training on weekends as scheduled, not to exceed more than 1 weekend every other month?

There will be additional training required after becoming an active member of the Fire Department. Firefighters will be required to:

- Complete NFPA 1403 Basic (Essentials) course within the first two (2) years. Tuition paid by the Bloomfield Volunteer Fire & Rescue Department.
- 2. Complete Healthcare Provider level CPR within the first 6 months of joining.
- 3. Attend Hazardous Materials training (Awareness level). Within the first two (2) years.
- 4. Attend training as designated by the Fire Chief of the Bloomfield Volunteer Fire & Rescue Department.
- 5. Being a Firefighter is an emotionally challenging job and provides you with self-respect and self-satisfaction. Firefighting requires training and demands team effort and respect from each individual Firefighter on the Department.

I have read these requirements and agree to them.

The Department's Expectations of its Members

The Fire Department is an active, highly visible part of the City of Bloomfield. Due to the fact that a firefighter is placed in an environment where others personal property and safety are in jeopardy, the Department expects its members to be of high moral character and integrity.

As a member of the Bloomfield Volunteer Fire & Rescue Department it may be your responsibility to protect others assets and life, consistent with the following:

- 1. Your actions should in no way discredit the City of Bloomfield or the Bloomfield Volunteer Fire & Rescue Department.
- 2. Respect for others must be maintained by not using statements in public that will be construed by the public to be discriminatory or negate Department policy.
- 3. Put effort into becoming a member of the team; exhibiting a determination to bring the greatest harmony among the Department members.
- 4. Be willing to assume reasonable "extra" duties that will be of benefit to the Department and the citizens it serves.
- 5. Become familiar with the Department policies and standard operating procedures, which will be followed always.
- 6. Respond in a safe and efficient manner to fire and rescue situations.
- 7. Participate in special Fire Department events.
- 8. Be aware that emergency situations may occur at any hour of the day, and at any time of the year; thereby causing you to be separated from family and friends, occasionally at inopportune times.
- 9. As you are a member of a team effort; your opinions, views, talents and ideas are important for efficient Department functioning. Therefore, the membership encourages you to express your concerns and ideas without fear of personal incrimination.

I have read and understand what the Bloomfield Volunteer Fire & Rescue Department expects of me if I become a member of the Department.
