REPORTS

City Administrator

- The renters at 622 N Washington have requested an extension on when they need to vacate until from 12/31/2022 to 3/31/2023. Attorney Harrison is going to draft a Dwelling Agreement and will add in the date that the council agrees on.
Motion by Husted, second by Bohi to approve entering into a Dwelling Unit Rental Agreement for 622 N Washington, Bloomfield, IA to extend the move out date to 3/1/2022 with rent to be prepaid by 1/1/2023. AYE: Howard, Husted, Bohi, Walton NAY: None Motion carried
- Administrator Day reported back to the Council that the following information of additional expense of raises that the Union is requesting.
3% = an additional $175,000, 3.5% = an additional $225,000, 4% = an additional $250,000, 4.75% = an additional 325,000 (this is the option that the Union wants), 5% = an additional $350,000. The City did pick up the majority of the insurance increase. There is also the option of sending back the supposal with no interest.
Councilman Husted requested that a special meeting be held regarding this issue. Administrator Day will set up a Special Meeting.

Director of Public Works

- The south trailer park has moved in five new trailers. The north one is moving out some old ones and putting in newer models.
- Met with Matt Wildman from HR Green for a two year check up for the new sewer plant.

Community Development Director

- Showed a video about marketing and recruitment of the City. It will be on the dashboard. Looking into showing clips through ICAN.
- Will be posting findenergy.com on the website. It is a one stop shop for energy assistance.
- Downtown lighting will be about $100,000. There is a T-Mobile grant for $50,000. Will present next month for Pathfinders to write and administer the grant.

Mayor

- Come out and enjoy the Hometown Christmas. There will be lots to do. Thanks to Main Street for all of the hard work.

Motion by Bohi, second by Walton to adjourn the meeting at 8:05 pm.

AYE: Bohi, Howard, Husted, Walton NAY: None Motion carried.

ATTEST:

Chris Miller, Mayor

Kyle McClure, Deputy Clerk
